Faculty of Business and Economics
Asset Management and Private Banking
(Selection process required) (For students of 2017-18 intake and onwards)

Offered As:
✓ Major

*Open to students of other Faculties:
For Non-FBE Curricula

What is it about?
Asset management is the management of money for institutions and individuals in different asset classes, such as stocks and bonds. Private banking is the provision of advice and services, including investment, credit, trusts, etc. according to the specific needs of High Net-Worth Individual (HNWI) clients with liquid assets of US$1 million or more. This major provides students with a solid foundation for a career in the fields of asset management and private banking.
