What is it about?
This programme seeks to nurture students to become knowledgeable, critical and caring users and producers of media and culture. The flexible programme structure draws on a wide range of related courses from the social sciences and humanities. It aims to:

- provide students with multi-disciplinary knowledge in the operation of the media and the state of culture;
- enhance students’ critical understanding of the world of media and culture by exposing them to historical and comparative analyses of the subject;
- engage students in critical evaluation of media and culture studies in globalization and their impacts on social life in different regional contexts
